

Proclamation

by

Andy Beshear
Governor

of the

Commonwealth of Kentucky

To All To Whom These Presents Shall Come:

- WHEREAS, Concrete pavement is of enduring importance to sustainable communities and to the health, safety, and well-being of the people of Kentucky; and
- WHEREAS, Concrete pavement systems support safe, reliable, and high-performing transportation networks, delivering superior resilience and minimizing long-term maintenance; and
- WHEREAS, The concrete pavement industry drives economic development, creates valuable jobs, and enhances the public tax base; and
- WHEREAS, Advancements in concrete pavement technologies are enabling Kentucky to achieve ambitious environmental goals by leveraging recyclable materials, cooler surfaces, and improved vehicle efficiency; and
- WHEREAS, It serves the public interest to recognize infrastructure that stands the test of time and provides foundational benefits for future generations;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ANDY BESHEAR, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby proclaim June 28-July 4, 2026, as

CONCRETE PAVEMENT WEEK in Kentucky.

Done in the City of Frankfort on the 23rd day of June, the year of Our Lord Two Thousand Twenty-Six and in the 235th year of the Commonwealth.
